Catering on the Move:
A Cookbook and Guide
by Pat Nekola

Learn to cater your own picnic for family and friends, for church or service club gatherings, or open a catering business. This cookbook has a variety of recipes designed especially for picnics. View buffet layouts, decorations, and various styles of picnics from simple to elegant. Recipes serve groups of 12-100, some up to 1,500!

Snacks and beverages, salads, grilled meats, hot vegetables, and desserts recipes are all designed for the picnicker's appetite.

From the owner of Pat's Party Foods, Caterers.

Pat Nekola has a long history of fine catering with her own business, Pat's Party Foods, in Wisconsin. She cooked many delicious recipes in Picnics, Catering on the Move. Picnics were her favorite parties because she enjoyed watching families and friends relax and have fun.

Pat Nekola began writing Picnics, Catering on the Move when her mother was diagnosed with Alzheimer's disease. Alzheimer's is a progressive, degenerative disease of the brain causing confusion, personality, and behavioral changes. Eventually many people with Alzheimer's are not able to care for themselves. A family member loses them twice: first to Alzheimer's, then to death. Taking care of a person with Alzheimer's takes a lot of patience and love.
